COURT RECORD.
United States Court—Judge Townsend.
In the United States court yesterday, Judge William K. Townsend presiding, there was only one case for the consideration of the grand jury. The case was that of Marshall Jewett, money order clerk of the Norwich postoffice, accused of embezzling $500. After being out an hour the jury found a true bill against the accused. The jury was then excused for the term. It was composed of:
George C. Williams, Wallace A. Buckwith, H. C. Keeney, Charles S. Ochsford, of New London, John C. Brouth, Charles M. Newton of Middletown, Robert O. Gates of Derby, Daniel Greenalt of Hampton, Nathan D. Bates of Preston, Austin Edgerton of Tolland, Wilbur B. Foster of Rockville, L. A. Dickinson of Hartford, I. Luther Spencer, Charles M. Owen of Suffield, Levi S. Welles of New Britain, John Macready of Enfield, Marvin H. Sanger of Canterbury, Edward P. Shaw of Redding, H. Sidney Hayden of Windor, William H. Youmans of Columbia, Robert O. Gates, ex-sheriff of New Haven county, acted as foreman.

Superior Court—Civil Side—Judge Shumway.
WANTS A CHANGE OF VENUE.
In the superior court before Judge Shumway yesterday arguments were heard on a motion for the removal of condemnation proceedings brought by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company against property of Edward Ferguson, a resident of Pittsburg, Pa., which is valued at $100,000. Mr. Ferguson wants the case transferred to the United States district court.

JEWETT'S SENTENCE DEFERRED.
Jewett was present with his counsel, E. T. Brown of Norwich, and entered a plea of guilty after the verdict was found. Sentence was deferred until next Tuesday. District Attorney McLean had no business for the petit jury, and after their names were called they were excused for the term.

THE MORTIMER CASE.
In the case of Amos Mortimer, secretary of the International Loan and Building Association, charged with fraudulent use of the mails, Attorney W. B. Stoddard told the district attorney that a friend of Mortimer's had written him that Mortimer was in Philadelphia and unable to be present.

Judge Townsend ordered that the case should go over until the December term to be tried at that time on its merits, and the demurrer in the case should be argued on Monday, October 14, at noon, in this city.

Mortimer is in Philadelphia and has not been in town since he was released on bonds of $1,500.

OTHER CASES.
In the case of George W. Booth of Norwich, charged with selling liquor without a government license, judgment was suspended. Booth sold two cases of lager and was arrested by both the state and government authorities. He got a thirty days' sentence from the state court and had no money to get bonds in the government court and altogether has spent five months in jail. He is a tinner by trade and said he was going back to his old occupation.

The case of Cyrus A. Leland, receiver, vs. John P. Bushnell, a suit to recover an assessment on stock of a Kansas National bank, was set down for trial on Tuesday, unless counsel for the defendant should ask for a jury trial.

In the case of A. M. Holmes of this city against the United States government for release from a lien, it was decided that the case should be assigned for some time in October.

Probate Court—Judge Cleveland.
THE WILL OF THE LATE ELI WHITNEY.
The will of the late Eli Whitney was filed in the probate court at 11 o'clock yesterday morning by L. M. Daggett of the law firm of White & Daggett. The executors named in the instrument are the son, Eli Whitney, Jr., and Attorney Henry C. White. The bequests are as follows:

To the First Ecclesiastical society of New Haven (Center church), in trust for the church, $1,000; to the Home for Aged and Indigent Women of Center church, $1,000; to the American Missionary association of New York, $2,000; to the American board of commissioners of foreign missions, $1,000; Home Missionary society of New York, $1,000; to the General Hospital society of New Haven, $3,000; to the New Haven orphan asylum, $1,000; and New Haven Historical society, $500.

The value of the estate is variously estimated at from a quarter of a million. The former figure is by conservative estimates judged the nearest right.

THE WILL OF THE LATE EX-GOV. BERNOR MORRIS.
The will of the late ex-Governor Morris was offered for probate yesterday afternoon. Governor Morris bequeathed all his property to his widow, Eugenia L. Morris, and names her by the law firm of Watrous & Buckland. The estate of the deceased is estimated at a quarter of a million. A part of it is the old Palladium building on Orange street.

A WILL TO BE CONTESTED.
Catherine D. Smith of George street, who died about two weeks ago, was believed by her relatives to be penniless, and they had all contributed to her support during the last years of her life. She left a will, however, disposing of about $5,000 worth of property and the settlement of the estate is now pending in the probate court. The bulk of the property goes to a brother and sister, Warren Shepard and Mrs. Averill of Branford, who are represented by Attorney Edmund Zacher. There are fourteen nephews and nieces who are almost cut off, she having left them just $25 each. She has bank deposits of about $3,000, a mortgage of $1,500 and about $1,500 in miscellaneous property.

All of her relatives believe that another will is in existence, and a hunt for it is being made high and low. Although the brother and sister get most of the property under the present will, they are anxious to know what the supposed second will says. Pending the search the hearing on the will has been postponed one week, the order having been made by Judge Cleveland yesterday. The nephews and nieces will contest the will, and they are represented by Attorney Jason P. Thomson.

WANTED TO PUT HER IN AN ASYLUM.
An application to have Mary J. O'Brien, daughter of the late Colonel James O'Brien of the Forty-eighth Massachusetts Volunteers, placed in the asylum was dismissed yesterday morning by Judge Cleveland. There seems to be some family difficulty between Miss O'Brien and her brother-in-law and her sister, Stanley T. Canning and wife, in which an estate of $15,000 or $20,000 in the south plays its part.

Mr. Canning, who was formerly superintendent of the Babcock Oil company, in charge of its local agency, made the application to have his sister-in-law, Miss O'Brien, committed to the insane asylum. He alleged that she was unfit to be at large, and when she was found last Wednesday night upon the street caused her arrest upon a peremptory warrant from the probate court, to be taken in custody. That night she was taken to the charities building, and the next day was transferred to the almshouse, where she has since been held.

Yesterday morning a hearing was held in the probate court, and Miss O'Brien was there alone to represent herself. Mr. Canning was represented by Attorney G. A. Tyler.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Dow.
John W. Augur, non-support, continued to September 3; William Allen injured to public property, $1 fine, $5.02 costs; Matthew Conroy, theft from Frank E. Hull, police on payment of $4.31 costs; Thomas Conroy, same, on payment of $4.31 costs; Chas. Smith, lascivious carriage, $7 fine, $3.95 costs; John J. Reilly, drunkenness and breach of the peace, $2 fine, $7.06 costs; Lawrence T. Phelan, same, discharged; Mary Sullivan, breach of the peace against Rose Coyle, $2 fine, $6.24 costs; Maggie Sheppard, same against Ellen Griffith, continued to August 29; John Finerty, same against Jacob Manderston, $1 fine, $5.06 costs; William O'Neil, same against Michael De Golia, $5 fine, $10.70 costs; Alfonso Durso, indecent exposure of person, $10 fine, $7.05 costs; Howard Chambers, vagrancy, judgment suspended.

Court Notes.
The case of Donato Lombardi, the Italian who caused the arrest of Vincenzo Kalkle, an organ grinder, Sunday for alleged theft of $100, and who was afterwards arrested for perjury, was not tried yesterday, as Kalkle was not in court and it was said that he had gone to New York. The case against Lombardi was continued to September 2 in order to bring the missing witness into court.

TO SET ASIDE THE SALE.
Attorney James B. Martin brought suit yesterday against Dora Isaacs of Oak street for James E. Reilly of Orange street. The plaintiff alleged that the defendant had fraudulently obtained the action to have the sale set aside. The property of the defendant at the corner of Oak and Factory streets was attached by Constable Shields. The property in question is at 20 Arch street.

The writ sets out that Mr. Reilly, through Philip Goodhart, agreed to sell the property. It states that Mr. Goodhart had formerly sold a piece of property for him for $3,000. There was to be $500 paid down and $100 a month semi-annually until $2,000 was paid, when Mr. Reilly was to give a warranty deed for the $2,000 and take a mortgage deed on the remainder.

Mr. Reilly alleges that he agreed as he thought to sell the Arch street property in the same way. He says that he is an old man and when he went to sign the papers in the case, as he did not have his glasses, he supposed that he was signing the mortgage bond in the case, but instead he signed a warranty deed transferring the property for the $500 already received, and the remainder to be paid at the rate of $100 a year.

By this method the defendant would be forty-five years in paying for the property, whereas, the rent, it is alleged, is $408 a year.

A BIG ONE.
A Potato Which is a Potato—A Curiosity Also.
A mammoth potato, or collection of potatoes, weighing two and one-half pounds, was exhibited at this office yesterday. It was raised by Russell Porter of North Guilford. The tuber is a curiosity, as it consists of one large potato, from which protrude half a dozen others, all compactly and solidly united to the main body. It probably tops the record in potato raising in the state this year.

ALWAYS TIRED.
HOW MANY WOMEN DO YOU KNOW
Who Can Say They Are Thoroughly Well? How They Can Be Strongly.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]
I don't feel very well; I am so tired all the time; I don't know what is the matter with me.

You hear these words every day. As often as you meet your friends, just so often are the words repeated. More than likely you speak the same pregnant words yourself, and there is no doubt but that you do feel far from well most of the time.

There is a cause, and—
There is a remedy for all that is covered by those words so constantly spoken by women.

Lydia E. Pinkham discovered the source of nearly all the suffering endured by the sex.

"Women's Complaints"—these two words are full of more misery to women than any two words that can be found in the language of the world.

Sudden fainting, depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or to do anything, backache, "bearing down," and kindred symptoms of serious disturbance seldom imagined by your family physician, and reluctantly mentioned by you.

The remedy is found; the same noble woman who discovered the cause of all your misery also worked out the remedy. All druggists have it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest blessing that ever came into the lives of suffering women.
